—The latest postal law decision is to the effect that publishers of newspapers can, under the new law arrest any man for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. —Some of those Missourians who imagine Kansas to be the garden spot of the world will have their eyes opened some bright morning. Here is what a man of Kansas experience says: "If we go to the court house and examine the records, we shall find more than half of the real estate under mortgage, and it we advertise a house or farm wanted, two-thirds of the people and country will be at our heels. In a few words: A crowd of lying land agents, shysters, lawyers and shark bankers have seduced eastern capitalists to invest in Kansas and the people to borrow money at high rates of interest, to the extent the debtor has the creditor by the throat and the farmer has to subscribe to the monstrous lie of big crops, when the crops are the greatest failure for years."—Ex.

—"Jesus Exalted" is the title of your next Sunday lesson. At the close of our last lesson we left Joseph, sold to Midianish merchantmen, and on his way down to Egypt to become there a slave. When Jacob, the father, received his son's coat, stained with blood, he supposed him to have been slain by a wild beast; thus he rent his clothes, sat in sackcloth and ashes, and refused to be comforted, declaring that he should go down to his grave, a mourner. How little we know of the ways in which God is to come with deliverance! Joseph was seventeen years of age when he arrived in the Nile valley. At that time that region contained the most cultured kingdom of the world, with Heliopolis, Memphis, Thebes and other cities of surpassing grandeur. One of the Pharaohs, or shepherds, was ruler there. The court was corrupt, the land idolatrous. On entering Egypt Joseph became the slave of Potiphar—the captain of the king's guard. Learn that the righteous are tested. That testings are preparatory. That we are ignorant of what is before us. That God has a plan for us in life. That God's plans never fail, however long delayed. That faith in God is wonderfully sustaining. That when we are fitted for our place we shall find it. That in all conditions our highest wisdom is to be exercised. That no assurance of God is excuse for indolence on our part. That forecast is a Christian obligation. Questions. If wronged, are we patiently waiting God's time of righting us? In these years of spiritual privilege are we preparing for the end? Are we caring for others as well as for ourselves? What are the treasures on which we rely for rest when death comes? How large and controlling is our faith? What if the famine should come now? Have we partaken of the bread and the water of life?

—The following is list of letters remaining in the Forest City postoffice uncalled for on March 31st: S. B. Ashlock, J. H. Avery, Christopher J. Bruce, S. Ervin, Wm. Ewing, Peery Gebron, J. M. —News reached here this week announcing the unexpected death from consumption of Miss Mary Cox, daughter of our townsman, Mr. John Cox, which occurred March 27th, at Belleville, Republic county, Kansas. Deceased had suffered for about two years with the dread disease, which finally carried her away. She was buried at the place of her death. The sympathy of the community is tendered the father and mother in their sad hour of bereavement.—Matland Herald.

—On Monday evening last the residence of Henry Johnson, in Clay township, was entirely destroyed by fire with all its contents. The loss will probably reach $3500 with no insurance. Miss Hazzard, the teacher of the Rising Sun school, who was boarding with Mrs. Johnson, lost her entire wardrobe and her savings from the winter's teaching. The fire originated by their little eleven year old daughter being sent to a closet to get a paper—she lit a match to find it and in a few moments the contents of the closet was in flames.

—Another sad accident is reported to us resulting from the careless handling of firearms. On Sunday last, Mrs. Davidson, living in Clay township, sent her two sons, one aged fourteen and the other a little younger, to kill a chicken. The boys concluded to do the killing with a gun, and proceeded to load a shot gun; they went into the yard, the younger boy having charge of the weapon, and playfully pointed the gun at his older brother, and the result—the same old, old
